

Child Care Resource and Referral Services

CCR&R Contact Information

Child Care Resource & Referral (CCR&R) agencies offer free support services and low to no cost training designed to promote your success in providing a high-quality program for the children in your care. Your local CCR&R program offers you many or all of these services:

- Becoming a Provider: Information about becoming a child care provider, assistance understanding the DHS Employment Related Day Care (ERDC) listing navigation.
- Professional Development: Professional development goal setting and planning support, conferences, online trainings, local trainings, college classes, support navigating college systems, cohorts for in-depth learning with other providers, and coaching.
- Financial Supports: scholarships and reimbursements to support program safety and quality.
- Parent Referrals: ensuring your information is up to date in the parent referral database, which allows 211 child care consultants to provide accurate information to parents seeking child care and meet parents' needs.
- Technical Assistance, Information and Resources: topics include health and safety, quality improvement, inclusion supports, child development, brain development, activities for children, and tools to build and grow your business.
- Individual Consultation: talk through questions or concerns regarding children in your care, for example, supporting children with special needs and challenging behaviors, working with parents.
- Program Materials: receive free materials to use in your program and/or borrow (where available) from lending libraries with videos, books, toys, and/or equipment.
- Referrals to Other Community Resources: ex. Child Care Provider Professional Organizations and Inclusive Child Care Support.
- Contact your local CCR&R to take advantage of the support and services that are available to you. Use the list below to identify the Child Care Resource & Referral program in your area. For more information on statewide CCR&R services, contact the Central Coordination Office at Western Oregon University (WOU) at 1-800-342-6712 or www.oregonccrr.com.
